MAY BE RECOGNIZED

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT WILL ISSUE A STATEMENT REGARDING NEW REPUBLIC.

COLOMBIAN TROOPS DEPART

SITUATION ON THE ISTHMUS IS GREATLY RELIEVED BY RECENT DEVELOPMENTS.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The president probably will make a statement today regarding the provisional government of the republic of Panama, of the establishment of which this government was officially informed Thursday. In view of the latest advices from Colon to the effect that the junta has succeeded in gaining control of the situation, it is currently expected that this announcement will recognize the newly established government, but it was impossible to secure official information on this point.

The decision to make an announcement today was reached after a conference at the White House last night of the president, Secretary Hay, Secretary Moody, Assistant Secretary Loomis, Rear Admiral John G. Walker, retired, and Rear Admiral Henry C. Taylor, chief of the bureau of navigation. Secretary Hay and Secretary Moody dined with the president and later were joined by the other officials. The conference ended shortly after 11 o'clock.

A cablegram was received last night from the American consul at Colon saying that the 400 Colombian troops which arrived there Monday on the Cartagena had sailed away.

With a Firm Hand.

It is stated that this government will conduct affairs with a firm hand in the execution of the treaty of 1846. Orders have been sent to the various naval commanders in the Caribbean that the isthmus is to be policed, the transit kept open and also that bloodshed must be prevented at any cost. This is further than the United States ever has gone heretofore and in the opinion of officials here indicates that the establishment of the new government at Panama, if it prove stable and orderly, will have the good wishes of the United States and our ultimate recognition and co-operation in conducting an orderly and permanent government on the isthmus. Advocates of the construction of the Panama canal say this assures the execution of that project.

The Pacific will sail from League Island next week with 300 marines for Guantanamo and in case the situation continues serious on the isthmus the Pacific will proceed thence to Colon and land additional marines.

The dispatch received from the executive board of the new government announcing the establishment of the provisional government of the republic of Panama stated that its action was in response to a popular and spontaneous demand on the part of the isthmian people and that the board was assured of the necessary military strength to carry out its determination.

It was first intended to send a reply to the three consuls but after the conference last night it was decided that no announcement would be made as to the character of this reply until today.

Situation Greatly Relieved.

The departure of the troops from Colon greatly relieves the seriousness of the situation, and the arrival of the Dixie last night relieved the general apprehension here regarding the safety of American lives and property.

This government, it was said, is interested but not surprised to note the European approval of its policy as shown in dispatches from London, Berlin and Paris, but it was added by a high official that the restoration of order on the isthmus and its maintenance had been long desired by the European powers and that the United States was in reality doing them and their interests a service.

Officials of the administration say nothing has yet been decided as to our policy save that it has been decided to execute the obligations of the United States as to affairs on the isthmus in accordance with a broad interpretation of the treaty of 1846.

The state department has received information to the effect that communication with Buena Ventura, the Colombian port on the Pacific coast, and with the interior points has been restored. This had been interrupted for a time owing, it was supposed, to the cutting of the cable by the revolutionists.

Orders will be sent to the cruiser Baltimore, now on her way to San Domingo, to proceed to Colon.

It is suggested that in the event of postponement of recognition of the new government the question might be referred to congress for action.

TROOPS LEAVE COLON.

Government Generals Believe the Situation Hopeless.

Colon, Colombia, Nov. 6.—After a conference Thursday afternoon Colonel Torres, commander of the Colombian troops here, seeing that the situation was hopeless, agreed to embark his soldiers on the Royal Mail steamer Orinoco, sailing for Cartagena at 6 p. m. A special train from Panama brought General Tovar, who will also sail on the Orinoco.

The people of Colon are now jubilant. The flag of the new republic flies from the railway stations at Gatun and Bohio Soldado, near Colon. Troops from Panama will doubtless take charge of the city today.

The Royal Mail steamer Orinoco, with 28 officers, 435 men and 30 women has sailed. The United States auxiliary cruiser Dixie has just arrived.

The municipal council of Colon has just notified the provisional government at Panama of its adherence to the new republic.

The arrangement by which General Tovar and his staff agreed to leave Panama was made through Commander Hubbard of the Nashville.

There is great rejoicing all over the city of Panama because the stability of the republic now seems assured.

The revolution has been practically bloodless, as only two Chinamen were killed during the bombardment of the city of Panama by the government gunboat Bogota.

REACH PORT IN SAFETY.

Captain and Crew of Wrecked Vessel Rescued by Italians.

New York, Nov. 6.—After being lashed to the stump of a mast for forty-eight hours and without fresh water for three days, Captain Gabrielson and nine of the crew of the water-logged schooner John W. Linnell have reached this port aboard the Italian ship Gabrielle D'Al.

Notwithstanding their privations, the shipwrecked mariners are not suffering from any serious ill-effects.

The Linnell left Fernandina on Oct. 17 and on Oct. 24 plunged into a terrific gale. The next day the wind blew a hurricane and it was found that the schooner was leaking. The wrecking pumps proved of no avail and in a short time there was six feet of water in the hold. The big seas had smashed the small boats and ruined the tanks holding the fresh water.

The sailors' plight was made more desperate by fear that the vessel would turn turtle. To prevent this the masts were cut away and the crew lashed themselves to one of the stumps. The vessel was awash with the exception of the top of the after deck house. The waves broke over the sailors continually.

On the afternoon of Oct. 27, Captain Gabrielson attracted the attention of the lookout on the Gabrielle D'Al and after a hazardous trip the Linnell's men were transferred from the sinking hulk of the D'Al.

DESIRES FEDERAL AID.

Gathering at Omaha Wants Protection From River Floods.

Omaha, Nov. 6.—With the object of exerting organized efforts to induce the national government to permanently protect cities, towns and lands from floods of the Missouri river, fifty delegates from the states of Nebraska, Missouri, Iowa and South Dakota met in Omaha Thursday. The gathering was named the Missouri River Improvement convention. The session was spent listening to papers and speeches and making preparations for a permanent organization.

To Meet Next Year in Iowa.

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—The thirty-fourth annual session of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church, which has been in session here a week, finally adjourned Thursday. It was decided to hold the next annual convention of the society within the jurisdiction of the Des Moines branch.

BONDSMEN ALARMED

TURN BANKER CASPER ERNST OF ST. PAUL OVER TO THE AUTHORITIES.

CHARGES OF EMBEZZLEMENT

MANY NORTHWESTERN PEOPLE DEFAUDED BY "GET RICH QUICK" SCHEME.

St. Paul, Nov. 6.—Casper Ernst, banker, investment broker and supposed wealthy man, who was arrested last week upon a charge of embezzlement preferred by John Metzler, a Catholic priest of Chippewa Falls, Wis., is now believed to be a defaulter to the extent of between $150,000 and $200,000.

The amount may run even much higher than these figures, as new victims are being heard from every day.

Thursday evening Thomas Grace, who was acting as one of the sureties on Mr. Ernst's bond, became alarmed at the apparent magnitude of Mr. Ernst's alleged embezzlements and decided to surrender the bond.

Mr. Ernst was placed under arrest by deputy Sheriff Herdick shortly after 7 o'clock, and Mr. Herdick personally guarded the prisoner at Mr. Ernst's Summit avenue home last night.

The recent developments in the Ernst matter are of a most sensational nature. It is believed that a thorough investigation of the deals in which Mr. Ernst is implicated will show that scores of people throughout Minnesota, Wisconsin and other states have been victimized by him to the extent of many thousands of dollars.

Since the first arrest of Ernst upon the charge of forgery and embezzlement, and the publicity given the matter, his alleged victims from all sections of the country are being heard from. Almost every mail brings inquiries regarding the matter from some person who has trusted Ernst with money to invest.

Defalcations Exceed Assets.

When Ernst was arrested upon the original charge it was stated that he would be able to settle with his creditors in full by disposing of his property holdings, but recent developments indicate that his supposed defalcations will be very far in excess of his assets.

While people of all classes are said to have been among his victims, Catholic priests appear to have been his especial prey. He is said to have victimized them to the extent of many thousands of dollars.

The most recent priest who had been induced to entrust his savings to Mr. Ernst for investment is a New Yorker, who permitted Mr. Ernst to handle $20,000 for him. Father Mayer, a New Jersey priest, was induced to turn over to Ernst for investment $22,000, of which amount $5,000 is said to have been returned.

"His dealings were not confined to priests alone, however," said an interested person last night. "A widow in Northern Minnesota trusted him with $10,000, and a man at Prairie du Chien, Wis., is a victim to the extent of $19,000. There appears to be no end to his victims, and there is no way of telling at this time when the amount of his alleged embezzlements will stop growing. It is one of the worst cases which has come to light in the West in many years."

During the years that Ernst has been acting as a banker and an investment broker he is said to have gained the confidence of many persons, and his promise of 8 per cent interest upon investments was an alluring one. His plan of operation is said to have been nothing more than a "get-rich-quick scheme."

Instead of investing the money he obtained, Ernst is said to have appropriated most of it to other uses, being able to pay the interest on sums already borrowed by his ability to borrow more.

Ernst will be given an opportunity to furnish a new bond.

LOUISIANA NEGRO LYNCHED.

Mob Overpowers Armed Guard and Hangs Sam Adams.

New Orleans, Nov. 6.—Sam Adams, a young negro, criminally assaulted Mrs. Peter Ladusse at Pass Christian, Miss., Thursday. He cut loose the horses of the carriage while she was strolling through a field with nurse and child and lured her from her companion under pretense of securing the animals. He escaped but was captured and at night a mob took him from the jail, which had been guarded by armed men as a precaution, and hanged him to a tree.

The officers intended taking him to Mississippi City for safe keeping, but the mob overpowered them.

BIG RANSOM FOR WENTZ.

Abductors Want $100,000 for Release of Young Millionaire.

Bristol, Va., Nov. 6.—Congressman Slomp has confirmed the rumor that Edward L. Wentz, the young Philadelphia millionaire, who disappeared, is in the hands of abductors in the mountains of Southwest Virginia, and that a ransom of $100,000 is demanded for his release.

MASSACRE THE GERMANS.

African Tribesmen Capture the Warmbad Fort.

London, Nov. 6.—According to the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail, the Bondelzwart tribesmen, who are engaged in a native rebellion in Damaraland, a country of Southwest Africa, forming a part of the German possessions there, hearing that reinforcements were being sent against them, redoubled their efforts and succeeded in capturing Warmbad fort. They burned the fort and the village, massacred all the Germans and took the English families prisoners. A relieving force from the north meanwhile engaged a large body of the natives and heavy fighting ensued, the result of which is not known. The rising, the correspondent adds, is supposed to be due to the execution of a Bondelzwart chief by German officers.

INDIANS PLACED IN JAIL.

Confess They Were in the Party That Killed Wyoming Officers.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 6.—United States Marshal F. A. Hadsell received orders from Washington Thursday to proceed at once to Douglas and take the necessary steps to prevent the Sioux prisoners from meeting with summary vengeance at the hands of a possible mob. Governor Chatterton denies the report that any danger exists, but will protect the prisoners at all hazards, even to the extent of calling out the militia of the state.

United States District Attorney Burke has been ordered by the attorney general of the United States to proceed at once to Douglas and prepare for the legal defense of the Indians.

The Indians captured in South Dakota have been surrendered to the Wyoming officers and were lodged in the Converse county jail at Douglas last night. It is feared that it will be difficult to get an unprejudiced jury to try the case.

Governor Chatterton has received a telephone message from Douglas stating that the nine Sioux bucks had been safely landed in the Douglas jail. These Indians confess that they were in the party that killed Sheriff Miller and Deputy Falkenberg.

INDIANS PLACED IN JAIL.

Confess They Were in the Party That Killed Wyoming Officers.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 6.—United States Marshal F. A. Hadsell received orders from Washington Thursday to proceed at once to Douglas and take the necessary steps to prevent the Sioux prisoners from meeting with summary vengeance at the hands of a possible mob. Governor Chatterton denies the report that any danger exists, but will protect the prisoners at all hazards, even to the extent of calling out the militia of the state.

United States District Attorney Burke has been ordered by the attorney general of the United States to proceed at once to Douglas and prepare for the legal defense of the Indians.

The Indians captured in South Dakota have been surrendered to the Wyoming officers and were lodged in the Converse county jail at Douglas last night. It is feared that it will be difficult to get an unprejudiced jury to try the case.

Governor Chatterton has received a telephone message from Douglas stating that the nine Sioux bucks had been safely landed in the Douglas jail. These Indians confess that they were in the party that killed Sheriff Miller and Deputy Falkenberg.

We furnish your house complete, easy terms.

A CHANGE IN A WELL KNOWN FIRM

The Firm of Murphy & Sherlund Has Dissolved, Latter Buying Former Out.

MR. MURPHY WILL REMAIN HERE

And will Again Engage in Business as Soon as a Location Can be Secured.

The well known firm of Murphy & Sherlund, doing business at 611, Laurel street, has been dissolved, Louis Sherlund, the junior member of the firm, buying out F. J. Murphy.

The firm was one of the oldest firms in the city doing a general plumbing, steam and hot water heating business and also bicycle repairing. Mr. Sherlund will continue the business at the old stand and has purchased the accounts of the firm and will settle all bills.

Mr. Murphy will, as soon as he finds a suitable location, engage again in the plumbing business in this city.

Both gentlemen are well and favorably known here and the dissolution was made by mutual consent, it being believed that there is room in Brainerd for another firm. They are both excellent workmen and since they have been in business together have done a thriving business.

PARKHURST ON DOWIE

Zion City's Chief as Viewed by Noted Clergyman.

CREED DEEMED SOMEWHAT FINE.

New York Pastor, Who Heard the Self Styled Elijah III. Speak, Says He is Disgusting and His Pretense to Healing Grotesque—Declares He is Too Willfully Conscious and Coarse Grained.

The Rev. Charles H. Parkhurst, D. D., pastor of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian church in New York, who was asked by the New York American for his impressions of John Alexander Dowie, leader of Zion's restoration host that recently invaded the metropolis, said:

You ask me to state my impressions of Dowie and of his service held in Madison Square Garden last evening (Oct. 19). I have tried and with fair success, I believe, to divest myself of prejudice; have gone even further than that and as far as possible have made use of the principle stated by Carlyle in his "Essay on Voltaire," that "no character is rightly understood until it has first been regarded with a certain feeling not of tolerance only, but of sympathy."

Dowie is presumably like other people in this respect, that he is neither unmixedly good nor unmixedly bad. The easiest question to ask and the most difficult to answer is whether he is a hypocrite. This Elijah business of his is confessedly a good deal of a strain on credulity. Probably he did not believe in it himself when he started out, but in trying to convince others of it he has persuaded himself and in this way hammered down his hypocrisy into sincerity. That is not difficult. Indeed it is very easy with a man of his peculiar psychological outfit.

Dowie is good perhaps, but at any rate he is clever and has a phenomenal facility for converting cleverness into dollars. This is not alleged criticism. Cleverness is good, and dollars are good, and we all wish we had more genius for converting the one into the other, and if it is wrong for a preacher to have a bank account it is wrong for a layman. There is only one genuine standard of righteousness. It is not claimed that Dowie has made his money fraudulently nor that he is using it dishonestly. His people come closer to him in these matters than we do, and they appear to respect him and indeed to love him. Another accusation urged against him is that he drives a fine team. Pastors, rectors and even bishops are sometimes liable to the same imputation. The original Elijah rode in a chariot, so Scripture tells us, drawn by a span by the side of which Dowie's steeds are not even a circumstance.

Dowie has founded a city which in point of orderliness and decency casts New York entirely in the shade. The laws are observed there better than they are here. The saloon question in Zion City is dealt with frankly and unequivocally. Zion City's new court closes with the doxology. Perhaps that is rather extreme, but there would be no harm in submitting the point to the attention of our local judges and justices and if prudent to the public prosecutor of the county. There is certainly administrative and executive timber in the man, and we ought to give even the devil his due, although I do not intend this disrespectfully. Were he mayor he would be in constant rows with his heads of departments, for in Zion City he is "the whole thing," the entire bureau, shelves, drawers and till, the very archdeacon of all bossism.

Dowie's people are fond of him, and he has the appearance of being very thoughtful of them. His thoughtfulness comes out in little, unobtrusive ways that for that very reason denote all the more. A modest example is seen in the fact that he recommended to the people who were to come out here (New York) with him that before leaving Zion City they should deposit in Zion's vaults the valuables, souvenirs, knickknacks, etc., they were leaving behind at the rate of $3. But even Zionist holiness has certain current expenses that have to be met, and every poultryman who devotes himself to feeding his birds expects to get some of it back in feathers.

Like this is what some one has written about Dowie's sanitarian business and by one who stands quite generously affected toward him: "He began it in 1893, when he opened a 'divine healing home,' which was simply a boarding house with a lot of prayer. Every morning he gathered the inmates, preached to them, prayed with them and laid hands on them, and every week Mrs. Dowie collected the board money—nothing extra for the prayer." The only adverse thing to be said about the performance is that it holds the plecty and the shekels in so close juxtaposition that it leaves a funny impression, and yet that perhaps is not very different from the familiar fact that other pastors preach so many sermons in the year and pray so many prayers in the year and get so much quid pro quo at the end of the year or quarterly.

The pretense that Dowie makes to supernatural healing is of course a grotesque and silly feature of his system. The court of appeals, I see it stated, has just handed down a decision condemning a Dowieite for permitting his child to die for lack of qualified medical attendance. The courts in our country do not like to interfere with people's liberty, but crankiness has to have a guardian put over it, whether this crankiness shows itself in the form of lunacy, criminality or religious obliquity. I have always been a disbeliever in what is advertised as religious healing. Dowie either knows better and is a hypocrite or he doesn't know better and thinks with a brogue.

There is nothing to be said against Dowie's doctrinal orthodoxy, provided he believes what he says he believes and presumably does. He is not a stiff Calvinist, and perhaps this is to his advantage, but he squares with the Presbyterian faith in the matter of the infallibility of the Scriptures and their sufficiency as a rule of faith and practice. He claims that no one ought to be admitted to church fellowship who has not repented of his sins and trusted in Christ for salvation. And he furthermore insists that in order to be admitted into the visible church one should in a measure have the virtue of the Holy Spirit. All other matters, he declares, are to be relegated to the category of the nonessential. Now, this is a fine creed. It is fine in what it includes and fine in what it does not include.

Assuming for convenience sake the sincerity of the man, it is to his misfortune that he links himself in any way with Elijah. In the first place, Elijah, even the original Elijah, is not what we want, and still less do we want a counterfeit copy of him. Elijah is a back number. John the Baptist came in the power of Elijah, and the Lord himself said that the poorest servant in the kingdom of heaven was ahead of John the Baptist. The rehabilitation of antiquities is not the thing required.

In the second place, Dowie is so evidently tremendously human that the masses are not going to take kindly to his claim of being a whit above human. Granted that he has chastened himself into believing that he is the fourth member of the Trinity, the people at large are going to interpret that as being so much sanctimoniousness, not to say sacrilegious luncheon.

He will not capture the people. He is no more like Moody or Spurgeon or Wesley than a kettledrum is like a canary. The people who throng, so long as they continue to throng, Madison Square Garden will be of two classes. The larger class will be of those who attend in the same way and in the same spirit that they would come into the Garden if Dowie were off and a circus were on. Dowie and his troupe are to them nothing more or less than a cage of imported curiosities.

The other class is made up of those who are suffering from a twist in their psychology and who want a Christianity with a corresponding twist to match it, and the people who trail after Dowie are of the same general breed.

Now, I have tried to give our visiting evangelist or prophet or whatever he may style himself the benefit of every doubt. I have tried to cover his personality and character fairly and honestly. I have sought to give him credit for everything that can possibly be credited to him; but, having done all that, I feel entirely free to go on and say that the harangue that he gave us last evening was all in all simply and unqualifiedly abominable and disgusting.

I confess myself as utterly disappointed. There were quantities of fine, prosperous people in the number of his followers, and there was a large amount of intelligence in the audience, but language so inconsiderate, so scolding, so discourteous, so scolding and so beneath the dignity of the occasion and of civilized people I never heard from any platform. I cannot be encouraged by it, because it was so abominable as to be really more amusing than irritating. The epithets which he applied to his congregation or to certain elements of it at any rate was bound to be offensive to all ears of polite and Christian people.

Mr. Dowie has undertaken a contract that is too large for him. He seems not to understand human nature and imagines that New York people are going to be bulldozed into respect for him and for Zionism. He has attempted more than he is equal to. He is too willfully conscious, he is too coarse grained, he is too ignorant of anything like sagacity and everyday discretion to be able to draw his Madison Square Garden congregation into his love or even into his confidence.

The service in certain portions of it partook very largely of the nature of a circus. He did not damn his audience exactly, but he evidently thought damn, and one is about as profane as the other. He was erratic and mad and lunny. I felt ashamed of him and of his cause and almost ashamed of myself for being there.

Now, as I already have said, I went to the gathering prepared to speak of him and of the service in terms of warm approval. I have heard so much said against him that the very reasons of the charges brought against him operated as a reaction in my own mind and made me all the more desirous of speaking strongly in his behalf.

The congregation was a courteous one. If there could have been upon the platform a man with as fine a presence as Mr. Dowie and with as searching and carrying a voice as Mr. Dowie's and along with that a spirit as true as that of the original Elijah a great deal of good might have been accomplished, and if any man or any number of men came in there last night not knowing what Christianity is and imagined what Dowie was giving was Christianity the condition of mind of them when they went away would be deplorable.

There were fine looking men on the platform, and it was with amusement that I observed the apparent and indeed evident satisfaction that they took in even the most commonplace and coarse vituperations in which the exasperated prophet revelled.

If the general run of Dowie's services are of the kind which I listened to last night the shorter the time he spends here with us the better for us and the better for the cause which, honestly or hypocritically, he is undertaking to perform.

The other class is made up of those who are suffering from a twist in their psychology and who want a Christianity with a corresponding twist to match it, and the people who trail after Dowie are of the same general breed.

Now, I have tried to give our visiting evangelist or prophet or whatever he may style himself the benefit of every doubt. I have tried to cover his personality and character fairly and honestly. I have sought to give him credit for everything that can possibly be credited to him; but, having done all that, I feel entirely free to go on and say that the harangue that he gave us last evening was all in all simply and unqualifiedly abominable and disgusting.

I confess myself as utterly disappointed. There were quantities of fine, prosperous people in the number of his followers, and there was a large amount of intelligence in the audience, but language so inconsiderate, so scolding, so discourteous, so scolding and so beneath the dignity of the occasion and of civilized people I never heard from any platform. I cannot be encouraged by it, because it was so abominable as to be really more amusing than irritating. The epithets which he applied to his congregation or to certain elements of it at any rate was bound to be offensive to all ears of polite and Christian people.

Mr. Dowie has undertaken a contract that is too large for him. He seems not to understand human nature and imagines that New York people are going to be bulldozed into respect for him and for Zionism. He has attempted more than he is equal to. He is too willfully conscious, he is too coarse grained, he is too ignorant of anything like sagacity and everyday discretion to be able to draw his Madison Square Garden congregation into his love or even into his confidence.

The service in certain portions of it partook very largely of the nature of a circus. He did not damn his audience exactly, but he evidently thought damn, and one is about as profane as the other. He was erratic and mad and lunny. I felt ashamed of him and of his cause and almost ashamed of myself for being there.

Now, as I already have said, I went to the gathering prepared to speak of him and of the service in terms of warm approval. I have heard so much said against him that the very reasons of the charges brought against him operated as a reaction in my own mind and made me all the more desirous of speaking strongly in his behalf.

The congregation was a courteous one. If there could have been upon the platform a man with as fine a presence as Mr. Dowie and with as searching and carrying a voice as Mr. Dowie's and along with that a spirit as true as that of the original Elijah—a great deal of good might have been accomplished, and if any man or any number of men came in there last night not knowing what Christianity is and imagined what Dowie was giving was Christianity the condition of mind of them when they went away would be deplorable.

There were fine looking men on the platform, and it was with amusement that I observed the apparent and indeed evident satisfaction that they took in even the most commonplace and coarse vituperations in which the exasperated prophet reveled.

If the general run of Dowie's services are of the kind which I listened to last night the 'shorter' time he spends here with us the better for us and the better for the cause which, honestly or hypocritically, he is undertaking to perform.

GOOD PROSPECTS AT GOLD MINE

Brainerd Men Who Have Been Up to the Soo Report Some Bright Prospects.

MANAGER SEELEY ENCOURAGED

Says that All the Big Enterprises at the Soo Will Soon Be in Operation Again.

Manager W. E. Seelye, of the Shakespeare Mining company, Con O'Brien, R. J. Hartley and others interested in the new mine near Webbwood, Can., 125 miles northwest of Sault Ste Marie, have returned and report a most encouraging outlook.

While at Duluth Manager Seelye run up against a newspaper man and the following interview appeared in the Duluth Evening Herald:

"We have started sinking a 50-foot shaft and have also decided to tunnel in from the side. We have great prospects as the indications would show that there is a vein of gold there the depth of which we can only guess until we get our shaft down.

"We have a gang of fifty men working night and day on the property, and believe that within a short time we shall have results that will be amazing. We purpose to erect a stamp mill on the property, but cannot tell exactly how soon this will be done. Our prospects are such as to warrant the belief that it will be one of the best mining propositions in the country.

"For several years cows have been driven daily over the land, where you can see the gold in the earth."

Mr. Seelye stopped at the Sault long enough to gain a general idea of the difficulties which the Consolidated company has encountered.

"I have no doubt but that all of the Sault enterprises, with the exception of the mines, will be again operated by the first of the year. The Canadian government will not allow the company to go to the wall without offering large backing, and it is said that the government stands ready to advance $10,000,000. My son is superintendent of the mines there and he has received orders from both sides to remain in the field. A few days ago he paid off a gang of twenty men out of his own pocket, and was informed that the Canadian government would reimburse him. It did so soon after he paid the men.

"The general impression prevails on the ground that the company will be helped out of its present difficulties, and that bright prospects are looming up for all of the properties."

The News-Tribune, of Duluth, in reporting the return of the gentlemen from the Soo says:

"It might turn out to be a great find and it may never develop anything," said a member of the party last evening. "We are more than pleased with the appearance of things and of course hope that the veins are what the surface would indicate.

"We purchased the tract of land from J. B. Miller and will develop the mine, if the good showing which it has made continues. Webbwood is an old logging town on the Canadian Pacific railroad and lies about 125 miles north of the Soo. A cross-cut is now being built over the top of the mine and Joseph Cronin, of Seattle, Wash., a man who has had thirty years experience in mining, has been placed in charge of the work."

The party was composed of the following: R. J. Hartley, F. C. Bolin, William Wood, A. L. Hoffman, W. E. Seelye, Con O'Brien and Justin Gray, of Brainerd, L. E. Lum, Andrew Gowan, Edward Sweeney, W. W. Butchart and J. C. Foley, of Duluth.

TO HELP SUSTAIN THE BAND.

Members of Brainerd Lodge, B. P. O. E., Believe that Marine Band is Worthy of Hearty Support.

At the meeting of Brainerd lodge B. P. O. E. last night, among the matters of general importance which came up for discussion, there was one in which the entire city should be interested, and as the Elk order in this city is composed of the very best class of citizenship the action taken last night have weight with all. It was in reference to the Brainerd Marine band and the support which it is receiving from the city. The band is recognized as one of the best in the country and is certainly a credit to the city, but like all other institutions of this nature, it requires money to keep things moving. By a vote of the lodge last night it was decided to take a hand in lending support to the band by assisting to raise the necessary funds for supplies etc., and later on to try and raise the money to maintain the band through the summer months. F. J. Sykora, who is at the head of the band, feels that with such an organization behind him as the Elks there is yet something to live for.

SEASON OPENS TUESDAY

Hundreds of Hunters Have Already Gone Into the Woods to be Prepared for the Opening Season.

The open season for shooting moose, deer and caribou will begin on Tuesday next and continue for twenty days. The woods of northern Minnesota are well filled with camps of hunters, and if the weather is favorable a good deal of venison will be brought out during the next three weeks. There has been no snow thus far and as the brush is dry it will be no easy matter to follow the big game.

Hundreds of deer hunters have gone into the woods to be prepared for the opening of the season. All through the state come reports of the issuance of unusually large numbers of licenses to shoot deer and caribou. Sportsmen from the east have outfitted this week and have come north.

SHOT PART OF FOOT OFF

William Nelson, News Agent on the M. &
I., Met with Painful Accident
Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon William Nelson, who is news agent on the M. & I. passenger, had the misfortune to accidentally shoot off a portion of his right foot while hunting a few miles west of the city.

No. 6 on the Northern Pacific was several hours late and as the M. & I. passenger had to wait for it, Mr. Nelson thought he would take a gun and spend a few hours hunting. He got about three miles west of town and while holding the gun in a slanting position, the barrel pointed downward, it went off and caught Mr. Nelson's foot. He was taken at once to the N. P. Sanitarium where the big toe and a portion of the foot was amputated. He is getting along as well as might be expected today but has suffered considerable pain. A. H. Bennett will take the run on the M. & I. during Mr. Nelson's confinement in the hospital.

REV. RICH. BROWN HAS RESIGNED

His Letter of Resignation was Read
Last Night at a Meeting of the Members.

NO ACTION TAKEN ON MATTER

A Statement will be Made by the Reverend Gentleman at Sunday Morning Service.

Another Brainerd pastor has resigned, and this time one of the ablest men that the city has had in years is about to sever his connection with the First Congregational church, unless something is done to induce him to remain. The gentleman referred to is Rev. Richard Brown and this little bit of news will be quite a surprise to many in the city, as he has been here but a short time.

There was meeting of the members of the church last night and Rev. Mr. Brown's letter of resignation was read. He made a statement that he had received two calls, but as yet had accepted neither one of them. His reason for resigning was given in very plain words. He stated that the members had not given him the support he had reason to believe that they would give him; that he had been sort of fighting the battle himself. This, he said, was one of the main reasons for his resigning at this time. A statement will be made at the service on Sunday morning covering the matter more precisely.

No action was taken in the matter last night, and it is generally hoped that Rev. Mr. Brown will be induced to stay.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"A FRIEND OF THE FAMILY."

"A Friend of the Family" was produced at the California theater last night for the first time, and before the initial act of the clever comedy had been played, the audience felt satisfied. The piece is a comedy that really makes one laugh and the actors are all capable of catering to the tastes of the theater goer, so there is no reason why "A Friend of the Family" will not become a genuine favorite before it has been produced many times.

George W. Barnum, in the title role—the man with all the troubles—had a part that is admirably suited to his taste. Alice Johnson more than pleased in the role of the woman who was unconsciously breaking up a happy home. —San Francisco Dispatch, Oct. 13, 1903.

Tomorrow night at the Brainerd theatre this funny comedy will be seen. Better get your seats now at Dunn's.

WILLIAM OWEN.

The clever young romantic actor William Owen, accompanied by a large company which includes that sterling actor, J. W. McConnell, will appear at the Brainerd theatre next Monday, Nov. 9, presenting a new romantic drama "When Louis XI Was King," an arrangement of Sir Walter Scott's novel, "Quentin Durward." Mr. Owen is the author and has been successful in fashioning a part after Scott's hero for himself, for which he is most admirably adapted. The scene of the romance is laid in the fifteenth century, when the tide of chivalry was at its greatest height. The knightly deeds and many adventures of the poor knight, Quentin Durward, his love for the beautiful Isabelle, Countess of Croye, the many trials and experiences that she is subjected to and the schemes and duplicity of crafty King Louis XI, are all related in a most charming and interesting manner.

HORACE ROBERTS DEAD.

Dies at St. Joseph's Hospital After a Brief
Illness With Heart Trouble—Brother
Arrives from North.

Horace Roberts, age 47 years, died at St. Joseph's hospital yesterday afternoon after a brief illness with heart trouble.

He was at one time connected with the Brainerd Lumber company as a laborer but went away some months ago, returning a few weeks ago a sick man. His brother, William Roberts, formerly a resident of this city, arrived from Blackduck this morning to take charge of the body and make arrangements for the funeral.

FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD

The Information Contained in this Citizen's Statement is Invaluable
to Brainerd People.

When a resident of Brainerd whose statement appears below has no monetary or other interest on the article which he endorses who is anxious to do his acquaintances and fellow residents a good turn, who publishes in this paper his experience with Doan's Kidney Pills—that citizen must have good and sufficient reason for doing so. The following should dispel any doubts which may have existed in the reader's mind on this subject:

J. Hagadorn, of 123, Ninth street N says: "For thirty years I had more or less trouble with my kidneys. Sometime laid me up while during others my back ached so severely that I could not work at night nor work during the day. On many occasions I could not stand and talk to a man for two or three minutes without suffering with twinges across the small of my back which radiated towards the shoulders. As time passed by the complaint became more pronounced and difficulty with the kidney secretions set in. As might be expected I tried everything when the attacks occurred to check them but if I had met with any marked degree of success I never would have resorted to Doan's Kidney Pills. When suffering severely I went to a drug store and got a box. I expected the results would be similar to those obtained by using other preparations. In twenty-four hours I changed my mind. I noticed they were acting totally different to anything hitherto tried and encouraged I kept on with the treatment until I finished two boxes. Now I may have re-occurrences but at the present moment and it is some time since I stopped the treatment I have not a symptom of my old complaint. To any one interested I will be only too pleased to give minutest details and substantiate the above statement in a personal interview."

REV. RICH. BROWN HAS RESIGNED

His Letter of Resignation was Read
Last Night at a Meeting of the Members.

NO ACTION TAKEN ON MATTER

A Statement will be Made by the Reverend Gentleman at Sunday Morning Service.

Another Brainerd pastor has resigned, and this time one of the ablest men that the city has had in years is about to sever his connection with the First Congregational church, unless something is done to induce him to remain. The gentleman referred to is Rev. Richard Brown and this little bit of news will be quite a surprise to many in the city, as he has been here but a short time.

There was meeting of the members of the church last night and Rev. Mr. Brown's letter of resignation was read. He made a statement that he had received two calls, but as yet had accepted neither one of them. His reason for resigning was given in very plain words. He stated that the members had not given him the support he had reason to believe that they would give him; that he had been sort of fighting the battle himself. This, he said, was one of the main reasons for his resigning at this time. A statement will be made at the service on Sunday morning covering the matter more precisely.

No action was taken in the matter last night, and it is generally hoped that Rev. Mr. Brown will be induced to stay.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"A FRIEND OF THE FAMILY."

"A Friend of the Family" was produced at the California theater last night for the first time, and before the initial act of the clever comedy had been played, the audience felt satisfied. The piece is a comedy that really makes one laugh and the actors are all capable of catering to the tastes of the theater goer, so there is no reason why "A Friend of the Family" will not become a genuine favorite before it has been produced many times.

George W. Barnum, in the title role—the man with all the troubles—had a part that is admirably suited to his taste. Alice Johnson more than pleased in the role of the woman who was unconsciously breaking up a happy home. —San Francisco Dispatch, Oct. 13, 1903.

Tomorrow night at the Brainerd theatre this funny comedy will be seen. Better get your seats now at Dunn's.

WILLIAM OWEN.

The clever young romantic actor William Owen, accompanied by a large company which includes that sterling actor, J. W. McConnell, will appear at the Brainerd theatre next Monday, Nov. 9, presenting a new romantic drama "When Louis XI Was King," an arrangement of Sir Walter Scott's novel, "Quentin Durward." Mr. Owen is the author and has been successful in fashioning a part after Scott's hero for himself, for which he is most admirably adapted. The scene of the romance is laid in the fifteenth century, when the tide of chivalry was at its greatest height. The knightly deeds and many adventures of the poor knight, Quentin Durward, his love for the beautiful Isabelle, Countess of Croye, the many trials and experiences that she is subjected to and the schemes and duplicity of crafty King Louis XI, are all related in a most charming and interesting manner.

HORACE ROBERTS DEAD.

Dies at St. Joseph's Hospital After a Brief
Illness With Heart Trouble—Brother
Arrives from North.

Horace Roberts, age 47 years, died at St. Joseph's hospital yesterday afternoon after a brief illness with heart trouble.

He was at one time connected with the Brainerd Lumber company as a laborer but went away some months ago, returning a few weeks ago a sick man. His brother, William Roberts, formerly a resident of this city, arrived from Blackduck this morning to take charge of the body and make arrangements for the funeral.

FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD

to Brainerd People.

When a resident of Brainerd whose statement appears below has no monetary or other interest on the article which he endorses who is anxious to do his acquaintances and fellow residents a good turn, who publishes in this paper his experience with Doan's Kidney Pills—that citizen must have good and sufficient reason for doing so. The following should dispel any doubts which may have existed in the reader's mind on this subject:

J. Hagadorn, of 123, Ninth street N says: "For thirty years I had more or less trouble with my kidneys. Some attacks laid me up while during others my back ached so severely that I could not work at night nor work during the day. On many occasions I could not stand and talk to a man for two or three minutes without suffering with twinges across the small of my back which radiated towards the shoulders. As time passed by the complaint became more pronounced and difficult with the kidney secretions set in. As might be expected I tried everything when the attacks occurred to check them but if I had met with any marked degree of success I never would have resorted to Doan's Kidney Pills. When suffering severely I went to a drug store and got a box. I expected the results would be similar to those obtained by using other preparations. In twenty-four hours I changed my mind. I noticed they were acting totally different to anything hitherto tried and encouraged I kept on with the treatment until I finished two boxes. Now I may have re-occurrences but at the present moment and it is some time since I stopped the treatment I have not a symptom of my old complaint. To any one interested I will be only too pleased to give minutest details and substantiate the above statement in a personal interview."

RECIPROCITY TREATY

MEMBERS OF CONGRESS UNDER-
CIDED ON PROPER METHOD OF PROCEDURE.

WOULD NOT BE EFFECTIVE

JOINT RESOLUTION OR BILL AP-PROVING TREATY THOUGHT INSUFFICIENT.

Washington, Nov. 6.—There were some interesting developments Thursday as to the method of congressional procedure on the Cuban reciprocity treaty. That treaty was amended by the senate adding the words "this treaty shall not take effect until the same shall have been approved by the congress."

It has been generally supposed that a joint resolution or a bill approving the treaty would be all that was necessary, but members of the house and some senators take an entirely different view. They say that a bill must be passed reducing the duty on the products of Cuba and that every provision affecting duties must be enacted in the legislation.

Representative Tawney of Minnesota, who was leader of the Republican minority that opposed the reciprocity bill in the last congress, said that the provision requiring congressional approval when inserted in the treaty was known by him to be defective and open to constitutional objections. The treaty of 1854 with Great Britain for reciprocity with Canada and the reciprocity treaty of 1875 with Hawaii, he added, both contained a provision at the very beginning stating that when suitable legislation was enacted by congress to carry

NIXON ATTACKS GUTHRIE.

Objects to Attorney's Method of Cross-Examination.

New York, Nov. 6.—The feature of Thursday's session of the hearing in the United States shipbuilding case were the bitter attacks made by Lewis Nixon upon William D. Guthrie, counsel for the defendants and representative of the interests of Charles M. Schwab, for his methods of cross-examination; leading questions by Undermyer, counsel for the complainants, as to the absence of competition between the Bethlehem Steel company and the Carnegie plant of the United States steel corporation in government contracts for armor plate, and the entire change of front of Mr. Guthrie, who heretofore had aimed to bring out the fact that the value of the constituent plants of the United States shipbuilding company was not over-estimated.

Mr. Guthrie adopted a line of questioning designed to show that the estimates of value were made by the promoter, the vendors and other interested or inexperienced appraisers and were practically without weight in determining the exact value of the plants and the assets of the consolidation.

Nixon was on the stand all day. His cross-examination was finished at 10:30. The next examination partly completed.

re out the provisions of the treaties, then the president should issue a proclamation announcing the fact and the treaty thereupon should become effective. Both these treaties were followed by legislation in the form of a bill reciting the articles that were to be admitted duty free. Mr. Tawney contends that to approve the treaty by a simple and asserts that the sugar provision of the treaty is nothing more than a pledge of the good faith of the government that the duties on sugar shall not be changed during the life of the treaty. Any tariff bill, he contends, can abrogate this provision of the treaty or the treaty itself.

The finance committee, which meets today, will take up the subject of the form of legislation necessary to carry the treaty into effect. Generally the senators believe that a simple resolution of approval will be all that is necessary but some senators, notably Senator Teller of Colorado, think that if approval is attempted in any such form it will raise a constitutional question which will cause a long debate in the senate. Senator Teller expects that the whole tariff question will be opened up for discussion by the Cuban measure and that it will be well into the regular session before action on the matter is taken by the senate.

Representatives Payne, Hemenway, Dalzell, Tawney and Mann conferred with Mr. Cannon on the form of the proposed Cuban legislation Thursday. Later Mr. Cannon said the matter would be determined by the ways and means committee. Mr. Payne, who is to be chairman of that committee, said he could make no definite statement until he had consulted all members of the committee, but it was his opinion that the measure in form would be a bill rather than a resolution.

Senators Allison, Aldrich, Spooner and Platt of Connecticut, arrived in Washington at night and immediately went into conference in Senator Allison's apartments at the Arlington hotel. At the conclusion Senator Allison said he believed the Cuban treaty would be made operative by joint resolution. He cited the method adopted by congress in relation to the Mexican treaty as a precedent.

with Russia involving the recognition of any important Russian sovereignty in Manchuria, but at the same time she has warned China that if the Russian demands are accepted Japan will be compelled to reconsider her friendly attitude to China.

CHARGED WITH GRAND LARCENY.

Frank B. Poor Arrested in Seattle, Wash.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 6.—Frank B. Poor, president of the Citizens' Light and Power company, recently organized as a rival of a company of the same name which was incorporated in New Jersey, was arrested Thursday on a bench warrant issued from the court of general sessions, New York City, charging him with grand larceny in the first degree.

The specific charge alleged is that Poor, while a partner in the banking house of Marquand & Co., New York City, appropriated to his own use nine $1,000 iron mountain mortgage bonds and subsequently fled the country, coming to Seattle. The alleged appropriation is said to have been committed on June 26, 1901. An indictment by the grand jury was obtained on the 28th of October, last.

Poor's bond was fixed at $1,000 and the date of hearing Nov. 19. Bail was furnished promptly.

SEVERAL PERSONS WOUNDED.

French Police Charge Rioters With Drawn Sabers.

Lyons, France, Nov. 6.—A meeting held Thursday in the Bourse de Travail, to protest against the present system of employment agencies and the alleged brutality of the police in Paris, was followed by a riot. After the meeting the demonstrators paraded the city until they came up with a force of mounted guards. Some person fired a revolver and the rioting commenced. Paving stones and lumps of coal stolen from a nearby factory were hurled at the guards and police. This was followed by more shooting. Many of the police were injured and one sergeant had his skull fractured. Finally the police with drawn sabers charged the rioters, wounding several of them and dispersing the mob. Several arrests were made.

EVIDENCE COMPLETED.

Arguments Will Be Made in Farris Bribery Trial.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 6.—The evidence was completed Thursday in the Farris bribery trial and arguments will be made today. The feature of the trial Thursday was the reading of letters sent by former Lieutenant Governor John A. Lee to D. J. Kelley. Only one of these seemed to have much direct bearing on the case, and this was one where he said he had drawn out $7,000 from the bank on March 19, 1901, and sent it to Kelley. This was the date when Lee said he drew $7,000 and paid it to Senator Farris. Lee denied writing the letter, but the defense had it identified by Paying Teller Hettell of the American Exchange bank, St. Louis, as being in Lee's handwriting. The defense introduced several witnesses in an endeavor to impeach Lee's testimony on a number of points. It is believed the defense weakened the case made by the state Wednesday.

WISCONSIN VILLAGE BURNED.

Bison Destroyed by Fire From a Lumber Mill.

Ashland, Wis., Nov. 6.—Bison, a little village on the Omaha, twenty miles south of here, was destroyed by fire last night. The village, which is without any fire protection, wired this city for help and engines were sent on a special train. The fire started in the mill of the Chicago Coal and Lumber company, which it completely destroyed, burning all the lumber piles and tramways and spreading to the houses of the village rapidly enveloped the entire village in flames. The mill is owned by J. H. Kreuger, of this city, who is in Minneapolis. The loss will easily reach $75,000.
